The World Premiere of FINDING FLEETWOOD

FINDING FLEETWOOD is a documentary film on the history and people of Fleetwood, Pennsylvania over the past 150 years. Twenty-four residents - ranging from age 13 to 91- share their experiences of growing up to spending their life in this special town. The traditions and memories come alive as they reveal how living in Fleetwood has influenced their own lives. From The Hill Car to Rauch's Drug Store to Strause's store - history over the years in Fleetwood is brought to life in this portrait on what Fleetwood was then and what it is today.

WINNER! of the 2023 AVA DIGITAL GOLD AWARD for Long Form Documentary.

8:30pm

THE SINATRA SHOW

Bob McDonald celebrates the songs and life of legendary crooner Frank Sinatra, with classic hits from Ol' Blue Eyes' concerts and movies, worthy of any Rat Pack. McDonald is well known to D.C. audiences as the singer of the National Anthem for the Washington Capitals and Washington Nationals. Bob served as Sergeant Major in the U.S. Army Chorus - a role in which he performed nationwide and overseas for our troops, presidents and visiting heads of state.

The Celebration Gala Evening includes heavy hors d'oeuvres, desserts, beer, wine, champagne and the Fleetwood Cadillac Specialty Drink. Limited seating available.
