

1973 CENTENNIAL QUEEN AND ATTENDANTS

Meet the MC and Judges

The Little Miss Fleetwood, Jr Miss Fleetwood,
Miss Fleetwood, and Ms. Fleetwood
150th Anniversary Pageant!

FLEETWOOD 150TH ANNIVERSARY PAGEANT
APRIL 22, 2023 - FLEETWOOD HIGH SCHOOL

THE MC

TOM FRANK

Tom Frank joins us for our 150th Celebration Pageant as our MC with such a robust, enthusiastic, and dynamic personality that can be seen on his tv show as the producer and host for Victory Community on the BCTV channel for the past 28 years. Tom is a dedicated community volunteer in many different Berks County affiliated community and civic organizations like United Way, Special Olympics, Berks County Talk-Line Volunteer, Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and the Red Cross. His dedication to our armed forces and involvement with our veterans is a testament to his honoring his father and father-in-law as purple heart recipients. He certainly will keep us entertained and honor all those participants in our pageant with his dedication to making everyone feel special.

THE JUDGES

JEANNETTE DEANGELO

Jeannette has lived in Blandon for the past 34 years. Her daughter, Angela, attended Andrew Maier Elementary, Fleetwood Middle School and Fleetwood High School! We love the school district and the community it serves. Jeannette serves as the President of the Reading Civic Theatre Board of Directors and has been involved in many Berks County shows as a performer, choreographer, and director. She has served on the boards of Fleetwood Community Theater and Genesis Theater. She performed with the Academy Players and the Yocum Institute. She also played the role of "Grandma Nunzio" in TONY N TINA's WEDDING in NYC. She is a retired RSD math teacher, a co-founder of the YNOT Awards program of Berks County and was the director of Reading High's school show for over 45 years! She has judged many beauty pageants for all ages in many Pennsylvania counties. She looks forward to and is grateful and honored to be a part of this celebration!

DORIS SEOANE JAEGER

Doris moved to Fleetwood in the summer of 1971 and Fleetwood was a breath of fresh air! I was instantly in love with the surrounding farms, the rolling land, and the peaceful feeling of life in this community. When it came time for the Fleetwood Centennial, it only seemed natural that someone who was so in love with the town would wish to represent it as the Centennial Queen. It was an incredible honor for me to serve in that capacity and I am thankful to have been given the opportunity to do so. Fleetwood has been at the heart of every important thing in my life, most importantly, it is where I met and married my husband of 46 years, Bill Jaeger. Together we have been blessed with a son, Michael, and two daughters, Kristina, and Ann. My husband and I spend a lot of time volunteering at our church and with several other organizations that are important to us. I am excited to serve as a judge for the upcoming pageant.

ERIC SCHAEFFER

Eric Schaeffer is a graduate of the Class of 1980 at Fleetwood. He was the Co-Founder and Artistic Director of the Tony Award-winning Signature Theatre in Arlington, VA for 30 years from 1989-2019. He has directed Putting It Together, Glory Days, Million Dollar Quartet, Follies and GiGi on Broadway. In the West End, his credits include The Witches of Eastwick and Million Dollar Quartet. He served as the Artistic Director for the Sondheim Celebration at The Kennedy Center in 2002 along with productions of Sunday in the Park with George, Passion, GiGi, Follies, Mame and First You Dream. He has directed Off-Broadway, National Tours as well as Mark Taper Forum, Ford's Theatre and Drury Lane Theater in Chicago among others. His productions in Seoul, Korea include productions of Sweeney Todd - 2016, 2019 and 2022 and Titanic. Most recently, he served as the Director and Executive Producer of the upcoming feature film - Burst The Silence- slated for release in 2023 by Rolling Pictures. He is also proud to be directing and producing the documentary film - Finding Fleetwood - for the 150th Anniversary Celebration.