

DROUGHT WARNING BERKS AND SCHUYLKILL COUNTIES

The Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection announced a drought warning for Berks and Schuylkill Counties.

In a drought warning, we ask customers to voluntarily reduce water use by ten to fifteen percent through conservation methods.

Suggested conservation methods include repairing leaks, including leaky toilets, take shorter showers, turn the water off when brushing teeth or shaving, and use dishwashers and washing machines with full loads.